DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-20 have been examined.

Drawings

- 2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: 32, (see pg. 5, line26). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
- 3. Applicant is required to submit a proposed drawing correction in reply to this Office action. However, formal correction of the noted defect may be deferred until after the examiner has considered the proposed drawing correction. Failure to timely submit the proposed drawing correction will result in the abandonment of the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. That is, claim 17 is not explicitly in the technological arts. It merely recites a method for publishing an authored work, but does not require any hardware in the method. Thus, the body of the claim must comprise hardware.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 6. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Publication No. US 2002/0035697 to McCurdy et al.

Referring to claims 1,2,4,6 and 7, McCurdy et al. disclose a publisher for converting the authored work to a resulting commercial-grade publication, a repositor linked with the publisher for storing the commercial-grade publication, a sales manager linked with the repository for retrieving the commercial-grade publication from the repository and distributing that commercial-grade publication, an encoder linked with the publisher, the repository, and the sales manager for securing information associated with the authored work form unsolicited disclosure outside the network addressable device; wherein the publisher interfaces with a remote service provider for editing the authored work for content and for publication of the authored work; wherein the repository provides the commercial-grade publication to the sales manager (see sections [0088] - [0091]).

Referring to claim 3, McCurdy et al. disclose the device wherein the network addressable device is coupled to a browser (see section [0084]).
